

Ong Chao Choon
Managing Partner, PwC Myanmar
Deputy Chairman and Advisory Leader, PwC Singapore

Chao Choon is the Managing Partner for PwC Myanmar. He set up the firm in Yangon when PwC return to Myanmar in 2012, the first Big 4 international professional services firm to do so. Today it has grown to over 130 strong, the largest amongst the Big4 in Myanmar, and the market leader in Advisory and Tax services .

Chao Choon is concurrently the Deputy Chairman and Advisory Leader for PwC Singapore. He has been with PwC for over 30 years, and worked in Singapore and Sydney. Chao Choon is one of the most experienced Deals partners in Asia Pacific, with over 20 years of M&A advisory experience, in addition to over a decade of auditing and business advisory experience prior to that.

Chao Choon graduated from the National University of Singapore with First Class Honours in Bachelor of Accountancy, and holds a MBA (Banking & Finance) from Nanyang Business School. He is a member of both the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants and Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand.

Outside of PwC, Chao Choon sits on the boards of the National Environment Agency (where he chairs the Audit Committee, and is a member of the Sustainable Singapore board committee) and The Art House Limited (where he is a member of the Finance Committee). He was previously the chairman of the Nanyang Business School Alumni Advisory Board, and the Deputy Chairman and Audit Committee Chairman of the Republic Polytechnic. He was awarded the Public Service Medal in 2017.